

Did You Know

By Pat J. Kirwan

THAT Circleville's observance of the Fourth of July, now characterized by a day of quietness devoid of all ceremony, was formerly one of the heralded events of the year. As early as 100 years ago and continuing down through the decades, this day, upon which the country gained its national independence, was celebrated with great pomp and splendor in the city.

The Herald of July, 1834, tells of the observance of that year and furnishes a picture of how the city's residents celebrated the Fourth in that long-ago period. The account follows:

"The anniversary of our national independence was celebrated in this city with tokens of becoming respect. At 10 a. m., a procession was formed at the court house and escorted by the Circleville Guards, it marched to the Presbyterian meeting house. There the Declaration of Independence was read and an appropriate address was delivered by Dr. T. H. Gibson, in behalf of the county temperance society.

"Dr. Gibson was succeeded by John Renick Osborn, representing the Guards, who gave an oration which appealed to the patriotism and generous feeling of the assembly in a strain of eloquence and propriety with which his audience was much delighted.

"The exercises were relieved throughout by the excellent performances of the Guards' band. A dinner was furnished by Col. Hite, of which about 60 persons partook; and they withdrew from the table well pleased with themselves and their dinner.

"The day passed off agreeably and without the occurrence of a circumstance to mar the harmony and festive hilarity with which its annual return should ever be greeted."

THAT in the early history of the state, Pickaway-co sent two representatives to the Ohio General Assembly. In October, 1834, six candidates' names appeared on the ballot. Several of them were later to become distinguished in the political history of the county. The candidates were Col. Valentine Keffer, John Shoup, Joseph Olds, John Cochran, Elias Florence and James Rose. Messrs. Shoup and Florence were elected to serve one year. They were later re-elected.

That 100 years ago, one-cent rewards were offered to the captors of Circleville's runaway apprentices. Advertisements were published in the newspapers and posted in conspicuous spots in the county notifying "all good citizens of the runaway." Apprentices were bound to their masters and could be punished for deserting them. A local gentleman, asking capture of his runaway apprentice in an advertisement in the Herald, June, 1834, said the apprentice "was slenderly made, of indolent habits and a vicious temper."

At the Colonial Carriage Co. building, recently razed to permit the improvement of W. Main-st to the Scioto river bridge, was formally opened 100 years ago this month. For years this building served as a hotel and stopping place for canal passengers. Andrew Cradlebaugh, a distant relative of Jack Ryan, W. Main-st barber, furnished a program of entertainment for guests at the hotel. At that time, the national road from Circleville to Washington, D. C., crossed the canal at the location of the old building.

POLISH BOUND AIRMEN LAND, DEFEAT OCEAN

French Air Ministry Informed Brothers Down in Orne Section

FIRST NEWS HEARD German, Polish Cites Awaiting Arrival

PARIS, June 30.—Successfully completing a crossing of the Atlantic, the Adamowicz brothers, Brooklyn soda pop manufacturers, landed here today in the Orne department in northwestern France, according to word received by the air ministry.

The flying brothers hopped off from Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, yesterday, hoping to reach their native Warsaw, Poland, without stopping.

News of the landing was the first word received since they started over the ocean.

The cause of the forced landing was not immediately learned.

BERLIN, June 30.—All airports throughout Germany and Poland were keeping a sharp watch today for Benjamin and Joseph Adamowicz, the Brooklyn soda pop manufacturers, who were believed to be on a flight from New York to Warsaw.

No word has been received at an early hour this morning. But little anxiety was felt, since the flying brothers themselves had estimated it would require at least thirty hours, perhaps longer, for them to reach Warsaw after leaving Harbor Grace, N. E. They took off from Harbor Grace at 6:26 a. m. Newfoundland daylight time, yesterday, and were not scheduled to reach Europe until sometime this afternoon or evening.

HAS AMPLE FUEL The Adamowicz brothers were believed to have ample fuel to carry them over the 3,500 mile stretch from Cape Race to Warsaw and weather reports indicated favorable conditions over the route they were believed to be following.

LONDON, June 30.—Maurice Rossi and Paul Codros, French aviators, will make another attempt to fly non-stop from Paris to California, they announced on their arrival today. Their previous attempt ended at New York when weaknesses which developed in their plane forced them to land.

MRS. HUDSON TAKEN TODAY

Widow of Civil War Veteran Succumbs After Six Months' Illness.

Mrs. Anna Hudson, aged 75, widow of the late William H. Hudson, Civil War veteran, died at her home, 205 W. Water-st, Saturday at 10:25 a. m. of complications after a six months' illness.

Her husband succumbed in September, 1932.

Mrs. Hudson was born May 26, 1859, a daughter of William and Louisa Hambrick Cannan.

She is survived by three sons, William H. and Ralph B. of Columbus, and Shelley C., residence unknown. Four grandchildren, including William H. Hudson, who made his home with his grandmother, also survive.

The funeral will be Monday at 2:30 p. m. at the home with Rev. G. L. Troutman officiating. Burial will be in Forest cemetery by M. S. Rinehart.

SPEAKMAN RITES AT CLARKSBURG

Funeral services will be held at the Clarksburg M. E. church Sunday at 2 p. m. for Mrs. Leona Mae Speakman, 30, wife of Pearl Speakman, of Clarksburg, who died in a Columbus hospital Thursday after a week's illness.

Mrs. Speakman, a Pickaway-co native, will be interred in Brown's chapel cemetery.

She was a daughter of John and Sarah Brown Satchell.

Clarence Francis, game protector, announced Saturday that streams in the county that have been closed will be opened to fishermen Sunday as per orders from the state conservation department.

The streams include Darby and Deer creeks and the old canal.

SEN. BULKLEY TO TALK HERE

Plans Trip Through Ohio To Aid Democratic Nominations In November.

CITY IN ITINERARY

Date and Location of Address Not Determined.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 30.—Immediately after the primary elections in Ohio are over, Senator Bulkley will roll up his sleeves and take a swing around the State to deliver campaign speeches in behalf of the Democratic candidates for Congress and Senate, at which time he will visit many cities, including: Cleveland, Cincinnati, Dayton, Hamilton, Marion, Youngstown, Canton, Akron, Circleville, Warren, Shelby and others, it was declared at his office.

Senator Bulkley after having attended to certain legislative matters which yet are unfinished, including several PWA projects, will enjoy a short rest, after which he will confer with State Democratic leaders and make up a definite speaking schedule, it was said.

Announcements as to when and where he will speak at the above cities and other places, will be made at a later date, it was explained.

Harry Is Named, Mal Left Out of Daugherty Will

Former Attorney General Is Executor; Several Small Bequests Made.

WASHINGTON, C. H., June 30.—Harry M. Daugherty, the late President Warren G. Harding's attorney general, inherits practically all the estate of his late mother, according to the will admitted to probate here.

Mrs. Jane A. Daugherty passed away Feb. 24, 1931.

Another son, Mal, is not mentioned in the document which was written April 17, 1929 and filed for probate Feb. 10, 1934. Harry Daugherty is made executor with full power to dispose of the estate as he sees fit.

After providing for the payment of all just debts, Mrs. Daugherty gives $200 to a grandson, H. E. Daugherty; $200 to another grandson, Draper Daugherty, now deceased; $500 to Emily Daugherty, Methodist Episcopal church; $100 to the Epworth league, this city.

The rest, an unestimated amount, goes to Harry.

HOSPITAL NEWS

HITLER MAKES DRASTIC MOVE TO END STRIKE

Ousts Roehm, Leader of Nazi Storm Troops, After Demonstration

SITUATION TENSE

Fear Real Trouble Nearing in Germany

BULLETIN

BERLIN, June 30.—General Kurt Von Schleicher, former chancellor, was killed in shooting today following Hitler's crushing of a revolutionary movement.

BERLIN, June 30.—(3:10 p. m.) (INS)—Chancellor Adolf Hitler this afternoon quelled a revolt within Nazi party ranks after a military demonstration that gave rise to rumors that serious trouble was brewing in the German capital.

Hitler ousted Capt. Ernst Roehm, one of his chief lieutenants, from leadership of the Nazi storm troops.

It is not yet certain, however, how far the chancellor intends to go in his support of the conservative wing of the party represented by Col. Franz Von Papen, vice-chancellor and former military attaché at Washington, whose speech at Marburg a few days ago precipitated the present political crisis.

In decreeing the expulsion of Roehm from his position as head of the storm troops, Hitler used unusually emphatic language.

MUST BE AGREEABLE "All members of the storm troops who do not agree with the appointment of Victor Lutze as Capt. Roehm's successor can expect arrest and punishment," said an official decree.

And the order was signed: "Adolf Hitler, supreme chief of the national socialist (Nazi) party and of the storm troops."

The city became tense with excitement shortly before noon when many members of the secret state police appeared wearing steel helmets and openly displaying rifles.

Shortly afterward storm troop detachments set up machine guns in Tiergarten-Strasse and in the Continued On Page Six

QUESTION BRINGS DIVIDED OPINION ON NATION STATE

Some Say It Is Better Others Not So Sure From Their Own Standpoint.

A cross-section of Circleville citizens divided Saturday on the question, "Are things better than they were last year at this time?"

In his address to the nation Thursday night, President Roosevelt said:

"The simplest way for each of you to judge recovery lies in the plain facts of your own individual situation. Are you better off than you were last year? Are your debts less burdensome? Is your bank account more secure? Are your working conditions better? Is your faith in your individual self more firmly grounded?"

A Herald reporter went out on Circleville streets to ask the merchant, the professional man and the laborer what they thought about it. The general consensus of opinion of the two former groups was that conditions are better, while the outlook expressed by the laborer is gloomy.

TYPICAL ANSWERS Here are some typical answers: Homer Fullen, manager of wholesale grocery: "I believe the moral tone of the country is better, but in dollars and cents we are in no better shape than we

Police Court

ORDERER 'OUT'

Adam Benford, Maplewood-ave, colored, who was arrested Friday afternoon for being drunk and disorderly, was given his choice of leaving town or a sentence to the Cincinnati workhouse by Mayor W. B. Cady Saturday and he chose the latter.

Benford's wife, Isabelle, arrested with him by Officer William McCrady, failed to appear. The mayor warned that she would receive the same sentence.

Boy Prays—Mother Gets Reprieve

While her little three-year-old son, Frankie, knelt at his bedside to pray for her, Mrs. Anna Antonio, 28-year-old Albany, N. Y., mother of three children, won a reprieve at Sing Sing prison, Ossining, N. Y., from her execution in the electric chair for plotting the murder of her husband. Gov. Herbert Lehman intervened when one of her two condemned accomplices made a last-hour statement.

ITALIAN MOTHER WEEPS TEARS OF JOY; NEW TRIAL HOPE HIGH

Ten Day Reprieve Granted By New York Governor; Attorney Makes Effort To Obtain New Trial For Woman.

NEW YORK, June 30.—While Mrs. Anna Antonio went joyfully in her Sing Sing prison cell, convinced of murdering her husband for profit, worked feverishly today to win a new trial.

Buoyed by Governor Lehman's grant of a ten-day reprieve, Attorney Daniel Prior will take his appeal to County Judge Earl H. Gallup in Albany Monday.

The basis of the plea will be the confession of Vincent Saetta, who took entire responsibility for the murder of Salvatore Antonio, and denied absolutely Mrs. Antonio had hired him for $500 to kill her husband.

RESULT OF FEUD In his confession, backed up by Sam Feraci, also sentenced to die, Saetta declared he had killed Antonio as the result of a personal feud. The statement was made to Warden Lawes at Sing Sing, Thursday. Governor Lehman then ordered a 24-hour stay of execution. Last night, as the three were again being prepared for the death chamber, the governor ordered a reprieve until the week of July 9.

Keepers at Sing Sing doubted that the confession throws new light on the case. They believe a strange admixture of hysteria, chivalry and bravado inspired Saetta to his dramatic utterance.

Michael D'Amrosio, official clerk of the prison, who took Saetta's pedigree, recalled the condemned man's words when admitted on April 19, 1933.

"I expect to get a commutation because there's a woman mixed up in this thing," he quoted Saetta as saying. "If I don't get a commutation, I'll make a statement at the last minute."

District Attorney John H. Delaney, of Albany county, was of the opinion the "confession" is little more than a device which doomed men often employ.

At Sing Sing, it was said Saetta retracted his confession orally as soon as he had sworn to its truth. But he steadfastly declined to make the retraction under oath.

RETRIEF TOO Saetta and Feraci also benefit from the reprieve. If a new trial is granted, they will undoubtedly be called as witnesses.

MELL TO SPEAK Congressman Mell G. Underwood will be the principal speaker at a Fourth of July celebration next Wednesday at Summerland beach, Buckeye lake.

BIRTHS Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Butler, Logan-st, announce the birth of a daughter, Saturday.

CHECKWRITER STOLEN L. J. Austin, Columbus, reported to police Friday that someone stole a checkwriter from his auto while it was parked in front of the Coca-Cola Bottling Co., S. Scioto-st.

THREE IN FAMILY TRAGEDY VICTIMS MIDDLETOWN, June 30.—A triple tragedy—the slaying of a mother and her daughter and the suicide of the woman's husband—was written into police records as a closed case today.

Victims were Mrs. Lucy Nickells, 34, her daughter, Iris, 18, and the husband, Roy, 44, a tobacco worker.

Nickells, according to Irene Darrell, 18-year-old visitor in the Nickells' home, started shooting after he remonstrated the mother for allowing a son, Harold, 9, to go to a picture show alone.

CHICKEN STOLEN L. J. Austin, Columbus, reported to police Friday that someone stole a chicken from his auto while it was parked in front of the Coca-Cola Bottling Co., S. Scioto-st.

Attack of Chinch Pests Reported in Pickaway-co

Chinch bugs have begun their annual march of destruction from wheat, barley and oats fields to corn fields in Pickaway-co.

Migrations of millions of the bugs are reported by farmers in the northwestern part of the county, according to a report of the Pickaway-co Farm bureau.

Supplies of creosote are being rushed to the infested farms for use in building creosote lines to repel the insect invaders.

This type of barrier consists of a narrow line of crude creosote, or tar, laid down in front of the first rows of corn to be protected.

OFFICER IS SHOT

South Bend, Ind. Scene; Two Others Wounded in Daring Holdup

SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 30.—Led by John Dillinger in person, a gang of desperadoes held up the Merchants National Bank here today, shot and killed Policeman Howard Wagner, shot two other men, and escaped with an undetermined amount of loot.

Dillinger was positively identified by C. M. Coen, vice-president of the bank.

Others shot were D. M. Coen, cashier of the bank, and B. F. Stanley, a customer. Both were shot in the leg.

The gang fled in a Hudson sedan bearing Ohio license plates stolen from a Toledo car late in April.

The bandits were last seen going south on U. S. Route 31.

Ashville Event To Be "Mecca" For Politicians

Many Plan To Enter Floats In Parade Which Starts at 11 A. M. Wednesday.

Ashville will be the headquarters for all politicians, Wednesday, when the sixth annual Fourth of July celebration is staged. An elaborate program is planned beginning with a parade at 11 a. m.

Even if no one else entered the procession the number of candidates present will make the affair a big one. Many of the candidates are planning floats; others are contemplating other forms of advertising. Anyway they will be there in all their glory, one trying to grab the spotlight, another trying to take it from him.

The celebration will be the best available date for the politicians to do some "mass" work prior to the August primary.

The wish of the Ashville Community club is that all visitors will come early and stay late because the fireworks display at the close of the day's events will be the climaxing feature.

BEER COMMISSION IS 'DEAD' TONIGHT

COLUMBUS, June 30.—The Ohio beer commission, which kept the check-reins on distribution of more than 2,000,000 barrels of beer, will pass out of existence tonight at midnight.

Activities will be taken over by a department under the jurisdiction of the state liquor commission.

The beer commission reported that about 1,537,928 gallons of legal beer were manufactured from April 1, 1933 to April 1, 1934. The latest figures were not available.

During the year period, the state consumed 1,699,044 barrels, which represented a per capita consumption of 7.92 gallons per person.

It also reported that the beer-drinking had brought $5,000,000 in revenue to the state while cost of the administration was $164,274.

LOCKJAW WARNING

Dr. C. C. Beale, Pickaway-co health commissioner, Saturday, sounded an alarm against the dangers of lockjaw because of the approach of Independence day and its attendant accidents.

Fourth of July has been dubbed as "Tetanus day" by some health authorities who know of infections from burns and lacerations caused by firecrackers, fireworks, and other explosive powder and gas compounds.

Dr. Beale urged that those who suffer even the slightest injury from fireworks should interview their physicians immediately.

TEMPERATURE REACHES 11. GRAIN IS SOLD

Quarter of An Inch of Rain Helps Alleviate Intensity of Heat

WHEAT IS 78 CENTS

Alexander Explains Cause for Ohio Wave

Weather forecasters today promised "heat relief" over a week-end following record breaking temperatures which reached the 101-degree mark Friday. Thursday the temperature was 100.

Friday's weather was the hottest of the year, Dr. H. R. Clarke, weather man, reported.

A heavy rain late in the afternoon relieved the heat's intensity. The rainfall amounted to .24 of an inch.

WHEAT REPORTED GOOD

With a general influx of wheat to Circleville's elevators expected to start Monday, farmers and elevator operators report the quality of "the stuff of life" good in most parts of the county. A Pickaway-twp farm leader said Saturday that a field threshed in that township netted 30 bushels to the acre, the highest figure reported yet.

The first grain reached the Circleville market Friday. The Eschman Milling Co. and other elevators were offering 78 cents per bushel today.

Unless considerably more rain falls over the week-end the demand to the elevators is expected Monday or Tuesday.

COLUMBUS, June 30.—While Ohioans continued to mop their brows and complain about the weather today, Federal Weather bureau officials, here, endeavored to explain the cause of sweltering temperatures which have broken all previous June records.

PRESSURES CITED "Areas of high and low pressure" shop talk of the federal weathermen for enormous deposits of hot air and smaller deposits of usually cooler air—were cited as the cause of all the trouble.

"The hot air region lies over Bermuda and has been there for two or three days," William Alexander, chief of the weather bureau says. These hot air areas do not usually stay more than a day in one place and this time element accounts for our most torrid June heat wave in history, he believes.

Hovering over the southwest, this enormous deposit of hot, stagnant air has been gradually moving over Ohio and the mid-west into, what our federal weathermen call, "a low pressure trough area," which now extends in a narrow strip from the Hudson Bay country south to Texas.

While state and federal officials are worrying how they are going to balance budgets, weather bureau men are wondering when enough air will center west of the trough to offset the effect of the situation over Bermuda. We will not have cool weather until that time, they say.

THROWN TO ROAD, WOMAN, 28, KILLED

CHILLICOTHE, June 30.—Thrown from the cab of her light truck when it was struck by a Greyhound bus on U. S. route 50, nine miles west of here, Friday, Mrs. Ethel Houser, 28, was instantly killed.

She was thrown into the road and then run over by the bus. She is survived by her husband and three children.

The other day I saw a reference to farming as "the greatest gamble in the world." Back in Genesis we read in a promise made to Noah, "That seed-time and harvest, summer and winter should not fail from the earth."

"We have never lacked. There has always been more than enough for our own needs. The farmer, owing to machinery, is facing readjustments as is the rest of the world. But complaining grows to be a habit. We have so much of it. There is no little faith in God. A little while ago we were not going to have any wheat. Now we are having wheat of unusual quality. So many times Jesus was compelled to rebuke His followers for lack of faith. "O ye of little faith." Do we really believe in God the Father? The church emphasizes faith. Go to church tomorrow. ## RELIGION ESSENTIAL TO GOOD GOVERNMENT

Calvin Coolidge once said "The government of a country never gets ahead of the religion of a country. There is no way by which we can substitute the authority of law for the virtue of man. Of course we can help to restrain the vicious and furnish a fair degree of security and protection by legislation and police control. The real reforms which society in these days is seeking will come as a result of our religious convictions or they will not come at all. Peace, justice, humanity, charity—these cannot be legislated into being. They are the result of a Divine Grace."

Many religious convictions are formed while attending a church service. Why not accept the invitation and COME TO CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY?

Lesson for July 1

AHIJAH AND THE DIVIDED KINGDOM

LESSON TEXT—I Kings 11:29; 12:1-13.

GOLDEN TEXT—Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall. Proverbs 16:18.

PRIMARY TOPIC—A King Who Was Not King.

JUNIOR TOPIC—Why a Young King Lost a Kingdom.

INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Right and Wrong Choices.

YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How to Prevent Divisions.

I. Ahijah's Prophecy (I Kings 11:29-33).

In view of the political situation it would have been unwise publicly to make known God's plan to Jeroboam within the capital city. Therefore, as Jeroboam was going out of the city, Ahijah, in a symbolic manner, made known the future of the kingdom. He took from his person his garment and rent it in 12 pieces, giving to Jeroboam ten of the pieces with the assurance that ten of the tribes would rally around him as their king.

II. Rehoboam Facing a Crisis (I Kings 12:1-13).

1. The demand of the people (vv. 1-4). This was occasioned by the burden of excessive taxation and enforced labor, which was required by Solomon in order to build costly houses and temples for his heathen wives. The people were groaning under its weight. Upon the accession of the new king Rehoboam, the people, through their leader Jeroboam, came with the request that their burdens be made lighter, promising loyalty to him on the condition of lightened burdens.

2. Rehoboam's foolish decision (vv. 5-15).

a. Consultation with the old men (vv. 5-7). These were men of experience who had been Solomon's advisers. Being acquainted with the conditions, they advised that the people's request be granted.

b. Consultation with the young men (vv. 8-11). These young men had grown up with Rehoboam, possibly were his half-brothers, sons of Solomon's many wives. Being thus brought up in the luxury of the king's house they were ignorant of the rights of the people and advised that the burdens be increased.

c. Advice of the young men followed (vv. 12-15). At the appointed time he announced his purpose to the people, asserting his intent to increase their burdens and sorrows.

III. The Revolt of the Ten Tribes (vv. 16-24).

Upon Rehoboam's announcement of his rash purpose all Israel cried out "What portion have we in David? . . . to your tents, O Israel!"

1. Rehoboam's attempt to collect tribute (vv. 18, 19). As he endeavored to collect tribute from the ten tribes, Adoram, his tribute gatherer, was stoned to death. So violent was the opposition on the part of the people that Rehoboam himself had to flee to Jerusalem in order to save his life.

2. Jeroboam made king over Israel (v. 20). The people lost no time in selecting a national head so as to be strong in their opposition to Rehoboam.

3. Rehoboam's attempt to compel the ten tribes to return to Judah (vv. 21-24). To effect this he assembled his army of 180,000 men. Through the prophecy of Shemaiah, which forbade them to go against their brethren they were persuaded to return.

IV. Jeroboam's Scheme to Unify the Ten Tribes (vv. 25-33).

1. He established calf worship (vv. 25-30). His pretext for this worship was his fear lest religious unity should lead the political separation. He was afraid that the people would go back to Jerusalem to worship and therefore would gradually be led to acknowledge allegiance to Rehoboam, and his own life would be taken. His concern for the religious worship was not the outcome of a life of piety, for he only used religion to secure personal ends as it is sometimes used today—a sort of cement to bind together the people and political interests.

2. His scheme of worship (vv. 31-33).

a. He built a house of high places (v. 31). This was against the direct command of God. God had directed his people to destroy the high places and to break down the idolatrous centers.

b. He made priests of the lowest of the people (v. 31), though God set aside the tribe of Levi to fill the office of the priesthood.

c. He changed the day of the Feast of the Tabernacle (v. 32). The time of the Feast was set by the Lord (Lev. 23:33, 34). Jeroboam argued that the change in the time would better suit their northern climate, but God who made the climate had ordained the time of the Feast.

d. Jeroboam himself intrudes into the priest's office (v. 33). This act of presumption on his part was the climax of his godlessness.

Who Will Be Circleville's First Born in the Month of July?

A group of Circleville's progressive merchants have joined together to do honor to the fortunate boy or girl who is first to be born in July in Circleville. Under the plan adopted these merchants will extend their congratulations in the substantial form of gifts to the First Baby of June and its parents. The gifts will be given to the first boy or girl to be born after midnight June 30, 1934, this baby to be declared July's First Baby.

To qualify a baby its birth should be reported immediately to the Herald by telephone or in person, giving the name and address of the parents, with the exact hour and minute of birth and the name of the attending physician.

As soon as possible the parents of the first born will call at this newspaper office and receive from the Baby of The Month Editor a certificate which will entitle them to the gifts and prizes the cooperating merchants are giving away.

To End Streak? Gehrig Injured,

BY DAVIS J. WALSH
International News Service Sports Editor.
NEW YORK, June 30.—Lou Gehrig, admittedly the best first baseman in the American League even by other first basemen, was hit on the head by a pitched ball in an exhibition game down in Norfolk, Va., yesterday, with results not to be immediately predicted. The doctor thinks that everything is going to be all right. He would have been more sure of it if Gehrig had been allowed to remain quietly and safely at home on his day off, while the front office of the New York Yankees set about thinking up other and less expensive ways of making a little pocket money for the boss.

As far as I can find out, the net outcome to date is that the boss has the pocket money and Gehrig has a headache. Just how much more expensive than the incident may be depends upon the after effects of the injury.

MAY HALT STREAK
If these are mild, Gehrig merely may lose his endurance streak, which now stands at 1,414 consecutive games of major league baseball. If they're at all violent, the club stands to lose the pennant. I had been thinking for some time that it was due to lose, anyhow, even with Gehrig in there. Without him, it's 20 to 1.

With Ruth tottering, he's the soul and sinew of an attack that isn't what it used to be. At first base, he's the one steady factor in an infield that changes personnel so often that it hardly knows its own neighbor from day to day. But, of course, the man's greatest contribution is the fact that he drives in between 170 and 180 runs a season, meaning in his case not only every season but on a basis of seven days for every week. He hasn't missed a game since breaking into the lineup way back there in 1925.

In the circumstances, I think I could manage to arrange not to have him pitched at in exhibition games. In fact, I'd be asking the governor to call out the militia to see that he got home safely at night. But, then, I'm no authority, having no way of knowing how badly Col. Ruppert needs the money. At last reports, he had about seventy-one millions but maybe he can't quite overtake the seventy-second and this makes him unhappy. We all have our troubles.

TIRE THIEF GETS WORKHOUSE TERM

George Shepard, 30, of Madison-co, was fined $100 and costs and sentenced to three months in the county jail by Justice of the Peace H. O. Eveland Saturday, when he pleaded guilty to a charge of theft of three tires and rims from Dr. Alfred Deyo of Darby, O.

Shepard was arrested at his home by Deputy Sheriff Miller Fissell Friday. Two of the tires were found under a bed in the home and a third was on his auto. Harry Dixon, police officer of Mt. Sterling, assisted Fissell in the case.

JULY FOURTH TO BE BIG DAY FOR BIRDS

COLUMBUS, June 30.—The Fourth of July celebration announced for the Red Bird Stadium by President George M. Trautman some time ago is rapidly taking shape and promises to be one of the most attractive sports and amusement features offered in Columbus on Independence Day in many years.

The evening's program for the "Fourth" is scheduled to get under way at 5 o'clock with a twilight baseball game between the Columbus Red Birds and Toledo. The second game is to be played under the floodlights at 8:30. Between the two games, troops from Fort Hayes are to stage a military demonstration that will include a sham battle, a prize drill between picked men and demonstrations of many intricate military maneuvers.

Following the night game will be a one hour display of fireworks. Tickets are to remain the same price for this game as for all other night games. President Trautman has announced.

Since this celebration promises to be the outstanding one in Columbus and Central Ohio, a committee of over two-score prominent local men has been appointed to link the various civic agencies that will participate in the July Fourth festivities.

Judge Benson W. Hough is chairman of this committee and he has nominated the following men to serve: Governor George White, Mayor Henry W. Worley, Francis Schmidt, Lew Morrill, Floyd Stahl, H. S. Atkinson, H. R. Townsend, O. C. Altmaier, F. E. Rathburn, Robert F. Boda, Ray

About This And That

BY THE SECOND GUESSER

TWO IMPORTANT TILTS
THE RECREATION BALL league race may be decided next week with two games which will have a direct bearing on the outcome booked — the Mecca-Circleville Oil tilt should be a honey and so should the game between the Container Corporation - Eshelman Feeds.

The former tilt is Tuesday and the latter Thursday.

The Mecca lineup is difficult to guess; Cum Robinson is that way making his players wonder who will be in there. He will have Gordon behind the bat, Vlerbome or Hegele in the box, Kline on first base, Merle Davis on second, Hickey and Short and Jaggy Davis on third with Wilson in left — For the other two outfield positions he has Earl Radcliff, Mettler, Bunk Radcliff and Hegele, if Vlerbome should take the mound.

RAY SMITH ON FIRST
The Oils will have Robinson catching, Purcell pitching, Raymond Smith on first base in place of Gelb who will be away, Merri-man, second, Steele short, Art Walker third, Joe Barnes left, Howard White center, and Leroy Moore and Don White for right.

THE STRAWBOARD LINEUP
is expected to remain intact with Strawser behind the bat, R. Brungs pitching, Trimmer first, Whaley second, Stevens short, G. Brungs third, Brannon left, Watson center and W. Brungs right, while the Eshelman team will use P. Valentine catching, Callihan pitching, Fausmaugh first, Tomlinson second, Dewey short, Canter third, J. Valentine left, Heeter center and Rihl or Dunkel right.

MECCA-C. C. OF A. WON
Games in the first half between these teams were fast ones with the Mecca and Container Corporation the ultimate winners.

Other games of the week are Purina Chows and McClarren meets on Monday, and Circle City entry and Given Oils on Wednesday.

CLARK UNDER $7,500 BOND

Man Who Planned Ashville Robbers, Signs Confession, Sheriff Reports.

The third member of the 'gang' which had all Ashville up in arms for a while as the result of a series of robberies was bound over to the grand jury Friday afternoon, under heavy bond by Mayor W. B. Cady. He is Glenn 'Spiky' Clark, former resident of Ashville, who is alleged to have been the ring-leader of the outlaw gang.

Clark planned several robberies in the village his cohorts claim.

The man, a former convict, was brought from the Franklin-co jail by Sheriff Charles Radcliff and after the hearing was immediately returned there. He is being held on investigation in another crime.

BOND SET $7,500
Clark pleaded not guilty to armed robbery of Frank Morrison, Ashville store-keeper, and was held for the grand jury under $7,500 bond. He also denied guilt in robbery of the Stanley Beckett shop and the Morris hardware store. Bond in each of these cases was set at $2,000 by the mayor. Clark is unable to furnish the required bond.

Strange as it may seem immediately after entering pleas of not guilty he signed a sworn confession telling his part in each of the robberies.

Jess Friley and Carroll Loudon are held in the local jail for the grand jury as part of the gang. Both are unable to furnish bond for their release.

Sheriff Radcliff said Saturday that he believed a special grand jury would be called probably on July 9 to dispose of a number of criminal cases now pending.

CINCINNATI, June 30.—The grand jury probe into an alleged alliance between police and a lower strata of the underworld had been marked today by the indictment of three police officers.

Those named were Carroll Coffield, 32, Henry J. Wyatt, 29, and Claude Itskin, 34. All were charged with accepting small bribes from keepers of an illicit resort.

One police officer already has been sentenced to the penitentiary as the result of the expose, which started when Mabel Smith, underworld character, claimed that she paid $9,000 to a score of police officers during the last year for "protection."

HITLER MAKES

neighborhood of the American embassy.

What happened immediately thereafter cannot be definitely determined because of confused reports from all sources.

Regimental detachments of the Reichwehr suddenly appeared at headquarters of the Nazi storm troopers. Gen. Hermann Wilhelm Goerring, prime minister of Prussia, and "right hand man" of Chancellor Hitler, is said to have accompanied them.

Within a few minutes regular army troops occupied headquarters of Capt. Roehm. Roehm had left Berlin a few days ago ostensibly on a vacation and because of ill health. He had been looked upon as a leader of the fight against Von Papen, who was regarded not only as the head of the conservative element in the cabinet but as the spokesman for the Catholic church in its dispute with the government.

LANGER IN PRISON

FARGO, N. D., June 30.—With the sentencing of Gov. William Langer to 18 months in prison and a fine of $10,000 on charges of conspiracy to defraud the federal government, Lieut. Gov. Ole Olson today said he would resign his fight to unseat the governor.

Upon the conviction of Gov. Langer, Olson took the oath of office, but the attorney general ruled that the governor's chair was not vacant.

Federal Judge Andrew Miller passed sentence on Gov. Langer and four others convicted with him. The four, Oscar Chaput, business manager of the administrative weekly, The Leader; R. D. Kinzer, Sr., Frank Vogel, state highway commissioner, and Harold McDonald, were given lighter sentences.

All five are at liberty on bond. Gov. Langer was victorious in the Wednesday primary, winning the governorship nomination on the Republican ticket against two opponents.

BELT PROVIDES CLUE TO MURDER

CHICAGO, June 30.—When a stranger called at her home and offered to sell Mrs. Leslie Hickey a man's belt for 10 cents she recognized it as one worn by her son Leonard before he was mysteriously beaten to death two weeks ago.

She summoned police and the would-be salesman, Albert Downs, 36, was arrested. Under questioning he named Ray G. Murphy, 34, as the one from whom he got the belt. Murphy, when arrested, was wearing the slain man's socks and hat, police said.

DAMAGE LEFT BY TORNADO IN NORTHEAST OHIO

Here are two views of the damage resulting from the tornado and lightning storm which ripped through northern Ohio districts, blowing down trees and shattering buildings—top, a dance hall at Turkeyfoot lake, near Canton, O.; below, the Y. M. C. A. camp at the lake. The storm brought thousands of dollars in damage, and resulted in the death of Peter Hahn, 60, of Orrville.

MARIE DRESSLER CONTINUES FIGHT

Eyes of World Watch California Home; Vitality Alone Keeps Star Alive.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., June 30.—The eyes of the world today were focused on a cottage set amidst the pines and palms on the brow of a hill overlooking the blue, sparkling waters of the Pacific.

In that cottage, in reality a spacious mansion, Marie Dressler, the "grandest trouper of them all" continued to stave off the death which her physicians and friends have said is inevitable.

Miss Dressler's amazing vitality alone is keeping her alive, according to her physicians.

She rallied again early today after having been in a state of coma for nearly three days.

Trained nurses, a staff of physicians, and sorrowing friends gave the woman who has made thousands roar with laughter in one breath and burst into tears in the next, the kind of attention which is seldom showered upon any individual.

The sickroom and the cottage where the desperate battle—more desperate than any of the desperate situations which have confronted her in her life of make-believe on the stage and screen—are literally thousands of flowers. Flowers from the gardens of the wealthy in this millionaire's playground of Santa Barbara; flowers from the great, the near great, and those whose names never make the lights of Hollywood, banked every nook and corner of this estate of C. K. G. Billings, known as Billings park.

MARRIAGE LICENSES IN JUNE SET MARK

A record number of marriage licenses were issued during June, it was reported in probate court Saturday.

A total of 32 permits to wed had been issued at noon today, assuring a record of better than a license per day during the month of brides. Last year only 23 licenses were issued during the month.

Friday afternoon, the 32nd couple appeared, brought the minister along with them and were married in the vault of the probate court office.

An interesting feature of this month's record is the number of times the name of Davis appears in the licenses.

Three Davises were involved in two licenses granted Friday. They were Paul F. Davis and Barbara Louise Davis and Gilbert C. Morrison and Frances Davis.

60 AT G. O. P. MEET

Approximately 60 persons attended the dinner meeting sponsored by the Republican club at the American House Coffee Shop Friday evening.

Paul Herbert, Republican candidate for the nomination of lieutenant governor, the principal speaker, attacked the NRA and other of President Roosevelt's policies on the grounds that they were not helping conditions.

Milton J. Scott, of Chillicothe, candidate for the Republican nomination of secretary of state, was also present and gave a short talk.

VET SHOTS WOMAN, TURNS GUN ON SELF

LONDON, O., June 30.—Mrs. Ora Berg, 33, today was shot and killed by Arch Kemp, 35-year-old Hammond Indiana war veteran, who then turned the gun on himself and committed suicide, according to police.

QUESTION BRINGS

were last year. The administration's program is such a new departure from the old order of things that we are uncertain about the future.

George Tidmore, a laborer: No, I'm no better off than I was last year. Temporary relief afforded by CWA helped last winter, but now I'm out of a job again. I believe the President is trying to do the right thing, but the people won't follow him.

Judge J. W. Adkins: Yes, I believe things are better. Farm prices are up and trade is better. As for Enford, colored, who was ordered out of town by the mayor Saturday: "I'm better off now than I was last year. I didn't have a job then and I've been able to get steady employment since the President took office."

E. A. Brown, attorney: "Generally speaking, I think the entire country is much better off now than it was last year. The farmer is getting a better price for his products and employment has gained considerably."

Frank Thomas, laborer: "I'm not better off because I'm crippled and can't get a job, but I believe the President's program has helped considerably. Let it be said, however, that he has helped many persons who spend their money as quick as they make it and really are not entitled to help."

Mayor W. B. Cady: "I believe things are considerably better than last year."

Officer Tom McManamy: "I'm not better off because I've had my salary cut in half, but I believe the country as a whole is in better shape. Prices are up, the financial status of the country is more secure and we're more confident in the future."

MISS LOUDENSLAGER AND MR. KUHN MARRY FRIDAY

At a small and informal wedding at the home of her parents, Miss Mildred Loudenslager, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Loudenslager of Marion, became the bride Friday afternoon of Mr. George A. Kuhn of Ashville.

Rev. E. H. E. Winterhoff of the Lutheran church at St. Paul read the ceremony at 4:30 o'clock in the presence of the immediate families and a few close friends of the couple.

Miss Mary Kathryn Martin was maid of honor and Mr. Harold Hines served as best man. The bride wore a white georgette dress and carried Johanna Hill roses and blue delphinium. Miss Martin was attired in pink organ-die and carried red roses.

A reception followed the ceremony.

The couple is enjoying a few days' trip through the East and will reside in Ashville upon return.

For traveling the bride wore a dark blue crepe suit.

Mrs. Kuhn has been physical education teacher at the Walnut-twp school for the past few years and Mr. Kuhn, son of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kuhn of Walnut-twp, is manager of the Kuhn Grocery in Ashville.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Kuhn of Kinston; Walter May, this city; Miss Koebel and Mr. and Mrs. Orla Kuhn, Columbus; Miss Louise Hay, Mary Louise Kuhn, Rev. and Mrs. Winterhoff, and Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Kuhn.

Mr. and Mrs. T. O. Gilliland, Pinckney-st., have returned from a ten days' visit in Rome City, Ind., where they visited Mrs. Gilliland's sister, Mrs. Joseph Kuntz of Eaton. Carol Ruth Frericks of Van Wert, Ind., returned with the Gillilands for a visit at their home.

Miss Nellie Dehman, E. Franklin-st., is reported recovering from a major operation which she underwent at University hospital, Columbus, Wednesday.

WHERE YOU CAN ALWAYS DO BETTER.

Did You Know

By Pat J. Kirewa

THAT Circleville's observance of the Fourth of July, now characterized by a day of quietness devoid of all ceremony, was formerly one of the heralded events of the year. As early as 100 years ago and continuing down through the decades, this day, upon which the country gained its national independence, was celebrated with great pomp and splendor in the city.

The Herald of July, 1834, tells of the observance of that year and furnishes a picture of how the city's residents celebrated the Fourth in that long-ago period. The account follows:

"The anniversary of our national independence was celebrated in this city with tokens of becoming respect. At 10 a. m., a procession was formed at the court house and escorted by the Circleville Guards, it marched to the Presbyterian meeting house. There the Declaration of Independence was read and an appropriate address was delivered by Dr. T. H. Gibson, in behalf of the county temperance society.

"Dr. Gibson was succeeded by John Renick Osborn, representing the Guards, who gave an oration which appealed to the patriotism and generous feeling of the assembly in a strain of eloquence and propriety with which his audience was much delighted.

"The exercises were relieved throughout by the excellent performance of the Guards' band. A dinner was furnished by Col. Hite, of which about 60 persons partook; and they withdrew from the table well pleased with themselves and their dinner.

"The day passed off agreeably and without the occurrence of a circumstance to mar the harmony and festive hilarity with which its annual return should ever be greeted."

THAT in the early history of the state, Pickaway-co sent two representatives to the Ohio General Assembly. In October, 1834, six candidates' names appeared on the ballot. Several of them were later to become distinguished in the political history of the county. The candidates were Col. Valentine Keffer, John Shoup, Joseph Olds, John Cochran, Elias Florence and James Rose. Messrs. Shoup and Florence were elected to serve one year. They were later re-elected.

That 100 years ago, one-cent rewards were offered to the captors of Circleville's runaway apprentices. Advertisements were published in the newspapers and posted in conspicuous spots in the county notifying "all good citizens of the runaway." Apprentices were bound to their masters and could be punished for deserting them. A local gentleman, asking capture of his runaway apprentice in an advertisement in the Herald, June, 1834, said the apprentice "was slenderly made, of indolent habits and a vicious temper."

At the Colonial Carriage Co. building, recently razed to permit the improvement of W. Main-st to the Scioto river bridge, was formally opened 100 years ago this month. For years this building served as a hotel and stopping place for canal passengers. Andrew Cradlebaugh, a distant relative of Jack Ryan, W. Main-st barber, furnished a program of entertainment for guests at the hotel. At that time, the national road from Circleville to Washington, D. C., crossed the canal at the location of the old building.

POLISH BOUND AIRMEN LAND; DEFEAT OCEAN

French Air Ministry Informed Brothers Down in Orne Section

FIRST NEWS HEARD German, Polish Cites Awaiting Arrival

PARIS, June 30.—Successfully completing a crossing of the Atlantic, the Adamowicz brothers, Brooklyn soda pop manufacturers, landed here today in the Orne department in northwestern France, according to word received by the air ministry.

The flying brothers hopped off from Harbor Grace, Newfoundland, yesterday, hoping to reach their native Warsaw, Poland, without stopping.

News of the landing was the first word received since they started over the ocean.

The cause of the forced landing was not immediately learned.

BERLIN, June 30.—All airports throughout Germany and Poland were keeping a sharp watch today for Benjamin and Joseph Adamowicz, the Brooklyn soda pop manufacturers, who were believed near Europe on a flight from New York to Warsaw.

No word has been received at an early hour this morning. But little anxiety was felt, since the flying brothers themselves had estimated it would require at least thirty hours, perhaps longer, for them to reach Warsaw after leaving Harbor Grace, N. F. They took off from Harbor Grace at 6:26 a. m. Newfoundland daylight time, yesterday, and were not scheduled to reach Europe until sometime this afternoon or evening.

HAS AMPLE FUEL The Adamowicz brothers were believed to have ample fuel to carry them over the 3,200-mile stretch from Cape Race to Warsaw and weather reports indicated favorable conditions over the route they were believed to be following.

LONDON, June 30.—Maurice Rossi and Paul Codos, French aviators, will make another attempt to fly non-stop from Paris to California, they announced on their arrival today. Their previous attempt ended at New York when weaknesses which developed in their plane forced them to land.

MRS. HUDSON TAKEN TODAY

Widow of Civil War Veteran Succumbs After Six Months' Illness.

Mrs. Anna Hudson, aged 75, widow of the late William H. Hudson, Civil War veteran, died at her home, 205 W. Water-st., Saturday at 10:25 a. m. of complications arising after a six months' illness.

Her husband succumbed in September, 1933. Mrs. Hudson was born May 26, 1859, a daughter of William and Louisa Hambrick Cannan.

She is survived by three sons, William H. and Ralph B., of Columbus, and Shelley C., residence unknown. Four grandchildren, including William H. Hudson, who made his home with his grandmother, also survive.

The funeral will be Monday at 2:30 p. m. at the home with Rev. G. L. Troutman officiating. Burial will be in Forest cemetery by M. S. Rinehart.

SPEAKMAN RITES AT CLARKSBURG Funeral services will be held at the Clarksburg M. E. church Sunday at 2 p. m. for Mrs. Leona Mae Speakman, 30, wife of Pearl Speakman, of Clarksburg, who died in a Columbus hospital Thursday after a week's illness.

Mrs. Speakman, a Pickaway-co native, will be interred in Brown's chapel cemetery.

She was a daughter of John and Sarah Brown Satchell.

Clarence Francis, game protector, announced Saturday that streams in the county that have been closed will be opened to fishermen Sunday as per orders from the state conservation department. The streams include Darby and Deer-creeks and the old canal.

SEN. BULKLEY TO TALK HERE

Plans Trip Through Ohio To Aid Democratic Nominees In November.

CITY IN ITINERARY

Date and Location of Address Not Determined.

WASHINGTON, D. C., June 30.—Immediately after the primary elections in Ohio are over, Senator Bulkley will roll up his sleeves and take a swing around the State to deliver campaign speeches in behalf of the Democratic candidates for Congress and Senate, at which time he will visit many cities, including: Cleveland, Cincinnati, Dayton, Hamilton, Marion, Youngstown, Canton, Akron, Circleville, Warren, Shelby and others, it was declared at his office.

Senator Bulkley after having attended to certain legislative matters which yet are unfinished, including several PWA projects, will enjoy a short rest, after which he will confer with State Democratic leaders and make up a definite speaking schedule, it was said.

Announcements as to when and where he will speak at the above cities and other places, will be made at a later date, it was explained.

Harry Is Named, Mal Left Out of Daugherty Will

Former Attorney General Is Executor; Several Small Bequests Made.

WASHINGTON, C. H., June 30.—Harry M. Daugherty, the late President Warren G. Harding's attorney general, inherits practically all the estate of his late mother, according to the will admitted to probate here.

Mrs. Jane A. Daugherty passed away Feb. 24, 1931. Another son, Mal, is not mentioned in the document which was written April 17, 1929 and filed for probate Feb. 10, 1934. Harry Daugherty is made executor with full power to dispose of the estate as he sees fit.

After providing for the payment of all just debts, Mrs. Daugherty gives $200 to a grandson, H. E. Daugherty; $200 to another grandson, Draper Daugherty, now deceased; $500 to Emily Daugherty Rarey, and $100 to the Epworth league, this city.

The rest, an unestimated amount, goes to Harry.

HITLER MAKES DRASTIC MOVE TO END STRIKE

Ousts Roehm, Leader of Nazi Storm Troops, After Demonstration

SITUATION TENSE Fear Real Trouble Nearing in Germany

BULLETIN

BERLIN, June 30.—General Kurt Von Schleicher, former chancellor, was killed in shooting today following Hitler's crushing of a revolutionary movement.

BERLIN, June 30.—(3:10 p. m.) (INS)—Chancellor Adolf Hitler this afternoon quelled a revolt within Nazi party ranks after a military demonstration that gave rise to rumors that serious trouble was brewing in the German capital.

Hitler ousted Capt. Ernst Roehm, one of his chief lieutenants, from leadership of the Nazi storm troops.

It is not yet certain, however, how far the chancellor intends to go in his support of the conservative wing of the party represented by Col. Franz Von Papen, vice-chancellor and former military attaché at Washington, whose speech at Marburg a few days ago precipitated the present political crisis.

In decreeing the expulsion of Roehm from his position as head of the storm troops Hitler used unusually emphatic language.

MUST BE AGREEABLE

"All members of the storm troops who do not agree with the appointment of Victor Lutze as Capt. Roehm's successor can expect arrest and punishment," said an official decree.

And the order was signed: "Adolf Hitler, supreme chief of the national socialist (Nazi) party and of the storm troops."

The city became tense with excitement shortly before noon when many members of the secret state police appeared wearing steel helmets and openly displaying rifles.

Shortly afterward storm troop detachments set up machine guns in Tiergarten-Strasse and in the

QUESTION BRINGS DIVIDED OPINION ON NATION STATE

Some Say It Is Better Others Not So Sure From Their Own Standpoint.

A cross-section of Circleville citizens divided Saturday on the question, "Are things better than they were last year at this time?" In his address to the nation Thursday night, President Roosevelt said:

"The simplest way for each of you to judge recovery lies in the plain facts of your own individual situation. Are you better off than you were last year? Are your debts less burdensome? Is your bank account more secure? Are your working conditions better? Is your faith in your individual self more firmly grounded?"

A Herald reporter went out on Circleville streets to ask the merchant, the professional man and the laborer what they thought about it. The general consensus of opinion of the two former groups was that conditions are better, while the outlook expressed by the laborer is rather gloomy.

Here are some typical answers: Homer Fulton, manager of wholesale grocery: I believe the moral tone of the country is better, but in dollars and cents we are in no better shape than we were.

ORDERER OUT Adam Bonford, Maplewood-ave. colored, who was arrested Friday afternoon for being drunk and disorderly, was given his choice of leaving town or a sentence to the Cincinnati workhouse by Mayor W. B. Cady Saturday and he chose the latter.

Bonford's wife, Isabelle, arrested with him by Officer William McCreedy failed to appear. The mayor warned that she would receive the same sentence.

Boy Prays—Mother Gets Reprieve

While her little three-year-old son, Frankie, knelt at his bedside to pray for her, Mrs. Anna Antonio, 28-year-old Albany, N. Y., mother of three children, won a reprieve at Sing Sing prison, Ossining, N. Y., from her execution in the electric chair for plotting the murder of her husband. Gov. Herbert Lehman intervened when one of her two condemned accomplices made a last-hour statement.

ITALIAN MOTHER WEEPS TEARS OF JOY; NEW TRIAL HOPE HIGH

Ten Day Reprieve Granted By New York Governor; Attorney Makes Effort To Obtain New Trial For Woman.

NEW YORK, June 30.—While Mrs. Anna Antonio went joyfully in her Sing Sing prison cell, counsel for the condemned woman, convicted of murdering her husband for profit, worked feverishly today to win a new trial.

Buoyed by Governor Lehman's grant of a ten-day reprieve, Attorney Daniel Prior will take his appeal to County Judge Earl H. Gallap in Albany Monday.

The basis of the plea will be the confession of Vincent Saetta, who took entire responsibility for the murder of Salvatore Antonio, and denied absolutely Mrs. Antonio had hired him for $500 to kill her husband.

NAME THOMAS APPEAL JUDGE

Appointment of Portsmouth Democrat Made By Governor White Today.

COLUMBUS, June 30.—Appointment of James S. Thomas, (D) Portsmouth, as judge of the fourth district appellate court to succeed the late Judge Roscoe J. Mauck, Gallipolis, was announced today by the governor's office.

Judge Thomas will serve until the November election when he will be a candidate for Judge Mauck's unexpired term ending on Feb. 8, 1935. He is a former common pleas judge.

THREE IN FAMILY TRAGEDY VICTIMS

MIDDLETOWN, June 30.—A triple tragedy—the slaying of a mother and her daughter and the suicide of the woman's husband—was written into police records as a closed case today.

Victims were Mrs. Lucy Nickells, 34, her daughter, Iris, 18, and the husband, Roy, 44, a tobacco worker.

Nickells, according to Irene Darrell, 18-year-old visitor in the Nickells' home, started shooting after he reprehended the mother for allowing a son, Harold, 9, to go to a picture show alone.

A tar or creosote line functions best on a compacted soil. A base for the tar is prepared by dragging a stone boat or mud boat between two rows of corn. Shallow post holes, dug at intervals of 15 to 20 feet along the smoothed surface.

OFFICER IS SHOT

South Bend, Ind. Scene; Two Others Wounded in Daring Holdup

SOUTH BEND, Ind., June 30.—Led by John Dillinger in person, a gang of desperadoes held up the Merchants National Bank here today, shot and killed Policeman Howard Wagner, shot two other men, and escaped with an undetermined amount of loot.

Dillinger was positively identified by C. M. Coen, vice-president of the bank.

Others shot were D. M. Coen, cashier of the bank, and E. F. Stanley, a customer. Both were shot in the leg.

The gang fled in a Hudson sedan bearing Ohio license plates stolen from a Toledo car late in April.

The bandits were last seen going south on U. S. Route 31.

Ashville Event To Be "Mecca" For Politicians

Many Plan To Enter Floats in Parade Which Starts at 11 A. M. Wednesday.

Ashville will be the headquarters for all politicians Wednesday, when the sixth annual Fourth of July celebration is staged. An elaborate program is planned beginning with a parade at 11 a. m.

Even if no one else entered the procession the number of candidates present will make the affair a big one. Many of the candidates are planning floats; others are contemplating other forms of advertising. Anyway they will be there in all their glory, one trying to grab the spotlight, another trying to take it from him.

The celebration will be the best available date for the politicians to do some "mass" work prior to the August primary.

The wish of the Ashville Community club is that all visitors will come early and stay late because the fireworks display at the close of the day's events will be the climaxing feature.

BEER COMMISSION IS 'DEAD' TONIGHT

COLUMBUS, June 30.—The Ohio beer commission, which kept the check-reins on distribution of more than 2,000,000 barrels of beer, will pass out of existence tonight at midnight.

It will be taken over by a department under the jurisdiction of the state liquor commission.

The beer commission reported that about 1,557,923 gallons of legal beer were manufactured from April 1, 1933 to April 1, 1934. The latest figures were not available.

During the year period, the state consumed 1,699,044 barrels, which represented a per capita consumption of 7.92 gallons per person.

It also reported that the beer drinking had brought $5,000,000 in revenue to the state while cost of the administration was $164,274.

TEMPERATURE REACHES 100; GRAIN IS SOAKED

Quarter of An Inch of Rain Helps Alleviate Intensity of Heat

WHEAT IS 78 CENTS

Alexander Explains Cause for Ohio Wave

Weather forecasters promised "heat relief" over week-end following record high temperatures which reached the 101-degree mark Thursday. The temperature fell to 100.

Friday's weather was the best test of the year, Dr. H. R. Chandler, weather man, reported.

A heavy rain late in the afternoon relieved the heat's intensity. The rainfall amounted to .34 of an inch.

WHEAT REPORTED

With a general trend of prices to Circleville's elevators, wheat to start Monday. Farmers and elevator operators report that the "stag of life" is the most parts of the country, away from farm lands, and that a field there in township netted 30 bushels per acre, the highest figure yet.

The first grain received at Circleville market Friday was from Mar Milling Co. and others were expected to arrive this week.

Unless considerably cooler falls over the week-end, the rush to the elevators will be Monday or Tuesday.

COLUMBUS, June 30.—Ohioans continued to complain of heat today. Federal bureau officials here tried to explain the cause of the temperatures which were all previous June.

PRESSURES CITED

"Areas of high and low pressure" —shop talk of the weatherman for enormous deposits of hot air and smaller deposits of usually cooler air, cited as the cause of all the trouble.

The hot air region lies over Bermuda and has been there for two or three days, William Alexander, chief of the weather bureau, says. These hot air areas do not usually stay more than a day in one place and this time almost accounts for our most terrific heat wave in history, he believes.

Hovering over the southwest, this enormous deposit of hot, stagnant air has been gradually moving over Ohio and the mid-west into what our federal weather men call, "a low pressure trough area," which now extends in a country south to Texas.

While state and federal officials are worrying how they are going to balance budgets, weather bureau men are wondering when enough air will center west of the trough to offset the effect of the situation over Bermuda. We will not have cool weather until that time, they say.

THROWN TO ROAD, WOMAN, 28, KILLED

CHILLICOTHE, June 30.—Thrown from the cab of her light truck when it was struck by Greyhound bus on U. S. route 50, Mrs. Ethel Houser, 28, was instantly killed.

She was thrown into the road and then run over by the bus. She is survived by her husband and three children.

LOCKJAW WARNING

Dr. C. C. Bond, Pickaway-co health commissioner, Saturday, sounded an alarm against the dangers of lockjaw because of the approach of Independence day and its attendant accidents.

Fourth of July has been dubbed as "Tetanus day" by some health authorities who know of infections from burns and lacerations caused by fireworks, fireworks, and other explosive powder and gas compounds.

RELIGION ESSENTIAL TO GOOD GOVERNMENT

Calvin Coolidge once said "The government of a country never gets ahead of the religion of a country. There is no way by which we can substitute the authority of law for the virtue of man. Of course we can help to restrain the vicious and furnish a fair degree of security and protection by legislation and police control. The real reforms which society in these days is seeking will come as a result of our religious convictions or they will not come at all. Peace, justice, humanity, charity—these cannot be legislated into being. They are the result of a Divine Grace."

Many religious convictions are formed while attending a church service. Why not accept the invitation and COME TO CHURCH NEXT SUNDAY?

OUR FLAG
 The date for the birth of the Stars and Stripes was June 14, 1777, and its creation was proclaimed in a resolution of the Continental Congress.

Charles W. Steward says, "The flag may trace its ancestry back to Mt. Sinai, whence the Lord gave to Moses the Ten Commandments and the Book of the Law, which testify God's will and man's duty and were deposited in the Ark of the Covenant within the Tabernacle, whose curtains were blue scarlet and fine twined linen. Before the Ark stood the table of shew-bread, with its cloth of blue, scarlet and white. These colors of the Jewish church were taken over by the early Western church for its own use and given to all the nations of western Europe for their flags. When the United States chose their flag it was the colors of old, but new in arrangement and design, and they call it the Stars and Stripes."

Red stands for courage, zeal, fervency; white for purity, cleanliness of life and rectitude of conduct; blue for loyalty, devotion, friendship, justice and truth. This flag which we honor and under which we serve is the symbol of liberty both civil and religious and the emblem of unity, our power, our thought and purpose as a nation.

Book Review
 Temperance and the changing liquor situation by Pickett. The Methodist Book Concern reviews the history of the liquor problem in the United States; it presents the psychological, the physiological and social consequences of drinking; it reveals the methods of handling the problem in other countries and finally gives practical suggestions as to what may be done about the situation. Questions at the end of each chapter make the book ideal for discussion purposes.

A Labor church has been organized in Cardiff, Wales, with well-known labor men as leaders. One of its five articles of belief makes it a condition of membership "in the event of war not to take up arms, make or distribute material for it, and only as a last resort to defend ourselves when invaded."

The Protestant youth of the United States and Canada met last month at Lake Geneva to plan a program for the reconstruction of society upon more Christian pattern, the theme of their conference being "Christian Youth Building for a New World."

At its recent General Assembly the Presbyterian church in the United States with a membership of 2,000,000 voted by a large majority in favor of union with the United Presbyterians having 200,000 members. Similar action will be taken by the United Presbyterians, then the matter will go to the local presbyteries for ratification before the union is final.

The Methodist Episcopal church in the San Francisco area, consisting of 742 congregations, has joined with the Roman Catholic church in the same district in an aggressive campaign against indecent films.

The Christian Observers, a publication of the Presbyterian church South, is the only weekly religious newspaper in the world that has completed one hundred and twenty years of continuous service.

LESSON

(By REV. B. B. FITZWATER, D. D., Member of Faculty, Moody Bible Institute of Chicago, Ill., and by Western Newspaper Union.)

Lesson for July 1

AHIJAH AND THE DIVIDED KINGDOM

LESSON TEXT—I Kings 11:29; 12:1-33.
 GOLDEN TEXT—Pride goeth before destruction, and a haughty spirit before a fall. Proverbs 16:18.
 PRIMARY TOPIC—A King Who Was Not King.
 JUNIOR TOPIC—Why a Young King Lost a Kingdom.
 INTERMEDIATE AND SENIOR TOPIC—Right and Wrong Choices.
 YOUNG PEOPLE AND ADULT TOPIC—How to Prevent Divisions.

I. Ahijah's Prophecy (I Kings 11:29-33).

In view of the political situation it would have been unwise publicly to make known God's plan to Jeroboam within the capital city. Therefore, as Jeroboam was going out of the city, Ahijah, in a symbolic manner, made known the future of the kingdom. He took from his person his garment and rent it in 12 pieces, giving to Jeroboam ten of the pieces with the assurance that ten of the tribes would rally around him as their king.

II. Rehoboam Facing a Crisis (I Kings 12:1-15).

1. The demand of the people (vv. 1-4). This was occasioned by the burden of excessive taxation and enforced labor, which was required by Solomon in order to build costly houses and temples for his heathen wives. The people were groaning under its weight. Upon the accession of the new king Rehoboam, the people, through their leader Jeroboam, came with the request that their burdens be made lighter, promising loyalty to him on the condition of lightened burdens.

2. Rehoboam's foolish decision (vv. 5-15).

a. Consultation with the old men (vv. 5-7). These were men of experience who had been Solomon's advisers. Being acquainted with the conditions, they advised that the people's request be granted.

b. Consultation with the young men (vv. 8-15). These young men had grown up with Rehoboam, possibly were his half-brothers, sons of Solomon's many wives. Being thus brought up in the luxury of the king's house they were ignorant of the rights of the people, and advised that the burdens be increased.

c. Advice of the young men followed (vv. 12-15). At the appointed time he announced his purpose to the people, asserting his intent to increase their burdens and sorrows.

III. The Revolt of the Ten Tribes (vv. 16-24).

Upon Rehoboam's announcement of his rash purpose all Israel cried out "What portion have we in David? . . . to your tents, O Israel!"

1. Rehoboam's attempt to collect tribute (vv. 18, 19). As he endeavored to collect tribute from the ten tribes, Adoram, his tribute gatherer, was stoned to death. So violent was the opposition on the part of the people that Rehoboam himself had to flee to Jerusalem in order to save his life.

2. Jeroboam made king over Israel (v. 20). The people lost no time in selecting a national head so as to be strong in their opposition to Rehoboam.

3. Rehoboam's attempt to compel the ten tribes to return to Judah (vv. 21-24). To effect this he assembled his army of 180,000 men. Through the prophecy of Shemaiah, which forbade them to go against their brethren they were persuaded to return.

IV. Jeroboam's Scheme to Unify the Ten Tribes (vv. 25-33).

1. He established calf worship (vv. 25-30). His pretext for this worship was his fear lest religious unity should lead the political separation. He was afraid that the people would go back to Jerusalem to worship and therefore would gradually be led to acknowledge allegiance to Rehoboam, and his own life would be taken. His concern for the religious worship was not the outcome of a life of piety, for he only used religion to secure personal ends as it is sometimes used today—a sort of cement to bind together the people and political interests.

2. His scheme of worship (vv. 31-33). a. He built a house of high places (v. 31). This was against the direct command of God. God had directed his people to destroy the high places and to break down the idolatrous centers.

b. He made priests of the lowest of the people (v. 31), though God set aside the tribe of Levi to fill the office of the priesthood.

c. He changed the day of the Feast of the Tabernacle (v. 32). The time of the Feast was set by the Lord (Lev. 23:33, 34). Jeroboam argued that the change in the time would better suit their northern climate, but God who made the climate had ordained the time or the Feast.

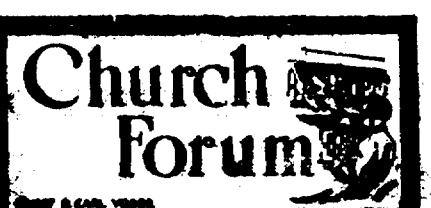

d. Jeroboam himself intrudes into the priest's office (v. 33). This act of presumption on his part was the climax of his godlessness.

What are the dangers of nationalism?

In nationalism there is the danger of the loss of personal liberty which has been one of the glorious triumphs of democracy. When an individual feels that his life is meaningless and vain he loses the essence of self-respect and self-determination and individually responsibility. Having lost these, he becomes dependent upon the government and in case the government cares for his needs he is not likely to assume any obligations in the interest of home and community welfare.

In nationalism there may be undue emphasis upon the importance and superiority of one's own country as the extent that international unfriendliness and race prejudices are encouraged. National selfishness may work hardships on other nations. Nationalism as practiced in one country provokes the same spirit in other countries and when all countries become hyper-nationalistic, we may expect sooner or later a world war in which all nations may become involved.

Too great nationalistic feeling suppresses religion for in a sense the will of the government rules rather than the will of God. There is a failure to let the love of God dominate the soul life from which issue the highest and best expressions of life and in which real loyalty to God, man and society naturally flows.

There are no points of the compass on the chart of true patriotism.—Winthrop.

'THE LONE WOLF'S SON'

by LOUIS JOSEPH VANCE

SYNOPSIS
 Aboard the S.S. "Navarre," bound for America, Michael Lanyard, reformed "Lone Wolf" of crookdom, is reunited with his son whom he thought dead. Lanyard is disappointed to learn that the boy, traveling under the name "Maurice Parry," is a thief; but he hopes his son's interest in Fennel Crozier, lovely daughter of the wealthy Mrs. Fay Crozier, will prove a good influence. Maurice steals the famous Habsburg emeralds from Mrs. Crozier, substituting counterfeits. Lanyard retrieves the gems for Fay. In a bridge game, Lanyard exposes two gangsters, "Jack Knife" Anderson and "English Archie," for cheating his son. Detective Crane warns Lanyard against their revenge. Soon the emeralds are stolen again and Lanyard is suspected when he refuses to name the first thief. M. Plon, French detective, and Captain Pascal are confident of Lanyard's guilt when they find the jewels in the latter's trunk, only to learn that they are the counterfeits. Fay gallantly says that she gave the zircons (false gems) to Lanyard as souvenirs. Lanyard is puzzled for he had returned these to Maurice, but he maintains a defiant attitude toward the officers.

CHAPTER XIII
 Plon controlled himself with a visible effort.
 It is not to you, monsieur, it is to Monsieur le Capitaine that one addresses oneself. It is of him that one asks: "Is it likely that there are two identical cases?"
 "Name of a dolt, why not?" Lanyard demanded. "With the evidence under your nose that the thief, when he planned his crime, went to such lengths to imitate the Habsburg emeralds, how can you say it is impossible that he took equal pains to duplicate their container?"
 "All I know is this," Fay Crozier helpfully put in: "I have yet to see these imitations in anything but a shabby green case. You see you see them now they were last night when I gave them to M. Lanyard."
 "Who took them away and presently brought the emeralds back in the same case or another exactly like it?"
 "If he hadn't, what would we have to do about it?"
 "Madame has reason," the Captain heavily interposed. "M. Lanyard also. Furthermore, for all I can see, this argument gets us nowhere."
 "Permit me to point out, Monsieur le Capitaine, that you get up back to where we started this investigation."
 "With the difference," Lanyard blandly suggested, "that I am no longer under suspicion of having secreted stolen property in my luggage. That, Monsieur le Capitaine, is the difference."

"Oh, as to that," M. Pascal finished with a shrug.
 "Then be so good as to instruct M. Plon to give back my keys."
 Before Lanyard had finished, the keys clattered upon the table.
 "But I repeat," Plon growled, uglier than ever, "we are simply back where we started from. M. Crozier remains the victim of a robbery, and M. Lanyard declines to do the duty the honest man he pretends to be by divulging the identity of the miscreant."
 "If I were sure of it, be sure, messieurs, I would communicate it. As soon as I am, if ever, you may be sure I shall not keep you waiting. In the meantime," the Captain coldly caught Lanyard up, "an attitude so recalcitrant, so subversive of morality, leaves me without other choice, monsieur, than to order you confined to your cabin till you come to your senses."
 "Preposterous!" Fay Crozier forestalled Lanyard. "M. Lanyard is an old friend—if you refuse to take into account his honorable position in the business world of Paris—I know him to be incapable of protecting the thief at my expense. I refuse to permit him to be so humiliated."

 "Please, madame!" Lanyard interrupted. "Please calm yourself and don't take the gesture of Monsieur le Capitaine so seriously. Either he fondly thinks to frighten me."
 "As to that," M. Pascal retorted at the top of his inches, "you shall judge. M. Dupont, you will be good enough to conduct M. Lanyard to his quarters."
 "Or else"—Lanyard's voice drowned the Captain's own—"he is weary of his hard life of a seaman and desires the one to retire him on his pension after his next east-bound voyage." He met M. Pascal's suddenly confused glare with a bow of decision, and turned to the other officer: "You have your orders, M. Dupont. Permit me to invite you to take your prisoner!"
 M. Dupont, with his Captain's eyes upon him and his Captain's silence leaving him no discretion, sketched a shrug which carried some color of admiration for Lanyard, and opened the door, thereby saving its panels a drubbing.
 The person on the threshold with his hand lifted to knock was the pursuer, a well-fleshed body with a red face, starting eyes, and precious little breath left with which to render the news which had fetched him up from his office in such a fluster.
 "Pardon, madame et messieurs," he panted, stumbling in. "By your leave, Monsieur le Capitaine: one did not know you were here—one would not venture now to interrupt but on a business of the gravest importance."
 "Well?" the Captain snapped. "What is it, then? Out with it!"
 "It is this which one has this minute found on the desk in one's office," Agitated hands discovered to the roomful a tolerably untidy parcel: a plain white pasteboard box in a wrapper of rumpled white paper from which the string had been removed.
 "Conceive," aggrieved accents begged, "that I have not the slightest idea how it finds itself there. It is not there when I turn my back for three minutes; when I look again, I see this, addressed on the wrapper in pencil in printed characters, if you please—'Purser, S.S. Navarre.' But naturally I open it; and what do I find? First, the lid of the box likewise lettered in pencil: 'To be deposited in the safe for Mrs. Innes Crozier, to whom a re-

It is this which one has this minute found on the desk in one's office," explained the Purser.

 By BREW HANSON and ROBERT S. ALLEN

Secret Service Men Precede Accompany President on Trip

WASHINGTON—The departure of the President may lighten the work-load for many around the White House, but for the Secret Service it means triple-duty. For nearly a month the Secret Service has been preparing for the Presidential exodus. . . . First step was to check every member of the crew of the Cruiser Houston. This was necessitated when Roosevelt switched from the U. S. S. Indianapolis with a crew already checked. . . . The family, hobbies and background, of each man are looked up, especially to see if he has any psychopathic tendencies.

In advance of Roosevelt, squads of Secret Service men have been working in Puerto Rico, the Virgin Islands and Panama. . . . In each place every crack letter received at the White House for four or five years is checked up. In some cases the sender is temporarily jailed. . . . Roosevelt has received his share of threatening letters, most of them from insane. . . . About sixty Secret Service men already are in Puerto Rico. When the President sails, they will board a revenue cutter and dash ahead of him in Panama—while he stops at the Virgin Islands. . . . This presidential cruise is straining the resources of the Secret Service more than any other in history. . . . Because Roosevelt is visiting so many places. . . . Almost every man from continental United States has been drawn off regular duty. . . . And when it became known that Roosevelt would stop in Colombia, the personnel had to be expanded further.

Floating White House

The President will be able to enjoy two radios during his cruise—one on his desk, one over his head. . . . His quarters will consist of three rooms—day-cabin, bedroom and bathroom. . . . Made of metal with mahogany finish, has been installed in his bedroom. . . . In the cabin a large shelf bookcase filled with 300 books awaits him. It contains fifty volumes of detective stories—such half-raising thrillers as "Thirteen Dinner," "Murder on the Tenth Floor," also "Turbo-Boat Annie," "Practical Book on Oriental Rugs," "Handbook of Alaska," "History of Texas," and "Old China Trade." . . . Forty motion pictures, many of them not yet released to the public, also have been put aboard the Houston.

The admiral's barge from which Roosevelt will fish has two swivel chairs mounted on either end. . . . William J. Shaw, because of his great angling record, has been selected as "piscatory adviser." . . . What a responsibility! . . . A new band picked from both the Houston and the Indianapolis will make the cruise. . . . The Houston was selected by the Navy, not by Roosevelt, although he specified that he did not want to use the Indianapolis again for fear it might become known as the President's flagship. . . . He opposes favoritism in the Navy. . . . The Houston was flagship of the Asiatic Fleet during the Japanese bombardment of Shanghai, has seen more actual fighting than any other modern vessel in the entire fleet.

Too Clever

In its drafting of the margin-fixing provision of the new Stock Market Act, the Federal Reserve Board was too clever for its own good. . . . At its own instigation, administration of the margin's section of the bill was postponed from September 1 to October 1. . . . Now that it is law, the Board has discovered that October 1 is at the height of the Congressional elections campaign, an extremely unpropitious time to set margin requirements. . . . If put at a high level, business yells. . . . If a moderate course is followed, the politicians are sure to roar. . . . The recently created post of Under-Secretary of Agriculture is the only junior cabinet office that does not carry with it an official automobile. . . . One of the government's star cipher code experts is a woman, Mrs. Elizabeth Smith Friedman, U. S. Coast Guard. . . . She is the wife of Major William Friedman, U. S. Army Signal Corps and an international code expert. Mrs. Friedman was her husband's assistant during the World War, helped decode secret military ciphers. . . . Applicants for loans under the new "Loans to Industry" Act

FOUR-H CLUB

The Logan Elm 4-H club met at the Pickaway-twp school building Thursday, June 28, with the president, Marvene Pontius, in charge. Sixteen members were present. Mary Brown was appointed chairman of the constitution committee with Freda French and Mary Miller as helpers. . . . After the business meeting of the food club, Alma Rhodes and Irene Pontius gave a demonstration of making chocolate ice cream. The club adjourned turning the meeting over to Mrs. Turney Pontius, leader of the clothing club. . . . The older clothing club girls will make dresses while the younger girls will make tea towels and aprons. . . . After the meeting ice cream was served. The club adjourned to meet again Thursday, July 12. BETTY FRENCH, News reporter.

MOVIES

AT THE CLIFTONA
 Liting music, gorges gowns, luxurious settings, and Joan Crawford at the head of one of the most brilliant casts ever assembled for a motion picture—these are the ingredients of "Sadie McKee," new Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production which opens Sunday at the Cliftona Theatre.
 The music, supplied by Brown and Freed, and songwriting team of M-G-M, includes the theme song, "All I Do Is Dream of You," "Please Make Me Care" and "I Looked In Your Eyes."
 A multi-millionaire's wife in several sequences, Miss Crawford is given the opportunity to wear some of the loveliest gowns ever designed by Adrian, international famous fashion designer.
 The settings for the palatial home of Brennan, the millionaire, are considered the greatest ever executed by M-G-M's architects and decorators. They show the newest and most original advances in home-building and luxurious surroundings.
 A rich and colorful night club scene is presented, with the chorus being introduced by the novel device of a great folding bed. This is the scene in which Gene Austin, noted tenor, entertains with his "boys."
 London is said to have been originally Lyndin, a Celtic name signifying "town on the lake." The Romans called the place Londinium, adapting the native name to a Latin form of the modern name is a subsequent corruption.

Coming to The Cliftona Theatre

Marian Martin Pattern

Complete, Diagrammed Marian Martin Sew Chart Included
PATTERN 9064

There are many of us who like a frill for its sweet femininity. . . . and others who are wise enough to know that it is vastly becoming. . . . At any rate, this one is! It ripples around the neck of a good looking frock and makes it a thing to covet on a summer day. If you have in mind something fresh and charming in a new cotton give some thought to this design. The sleeves are the type that key in well with cotton stuff and the simplicity of the skirt has that long-standing appeal of going with good grace to the laundry.
 Pattern 9064 may be ordered only in sizes 14, 16, 18, 20, 32, 34, 36, 38, 40 and 42. Size 16 requires 4 yards 36 inch fabric.

Who Will Be Circleville's First Born in the Month of July?

A group of Circleville's progressive merchants have joined together to do honor to the fortunate boy or girl who is first to be born in July in Circleville. Under the plan adopted these merchants will extend their congratulations in the substantial form of gifts to the First Baby of June and its parents. The gifts will be given to the first boy or girl to be born after midnight June 30, 1934, this baby to be declared July's First Baby.

To qualify a baby its birth should be reported immediately to the Herald by telephone or in person, giving the name and address of the parents, with the exact hour and minute of birth and the name of the attending physician. As soon as possible the parents of the first born will call at this newspaper office and receive from the Baby of The Month Editor a certificate which will entitle them to the gifts and prizes the cooperating merchants are giving away.

End Streak? Gehrig Injured,

DAVIS J. WALSH
Editor

YORK, June 30. Lou Gehrig, the best first baseman in the American League, was injured by a pitched ball during a game down in New York yesterday, with the Yankees leading the Red Sox 1-0. The doctor thinks that the injury is going to be all right, but it has been allowed to be treated at home. Gehrig had been allowed to be treated at home, but the Yankees are thinking of making a trade for him. As I can find out, the best way to date is that the boss is pocket money and Gehrig is a headache. Just how much expensive than that the injury may be depends upon the effects of the injury.

MAY HALT STREAK
These are mild, Gehrig merely has his endurance streak. Now stands at 1,414 consecutive games of major league baseball. They are at all violent, the odds to lose the pennant. I am thinking for some time it was due to lose, anyhow, with Gehrig in there. With him, it's 20 to 1.

CONTESTS HERE SUNDAY

Castor, Columbus Teams
Invade City For Double-Header.

Two recreation ball games are scheduled for the Southern Ohio Castor Co. field Sunday afternoon. The first starting at 1:30 p. m. is the Purina Chows, tangleing the Columbus team, reported to be strong one. The Purinas will be what strengthened for their game and will put up a good battle. The second game scheduled to immediately after the Chowmbus tilt finds the Eshelman team meeting a Lancaster team, reported to be a good one.

Then will be the Eshelman team, with Red Owens possibly getting some work since the teams must play on Thursday and Friday next week. The Container Corporation and the Given Oils, latter to be played over as a result of a 2-2 tie Thursday.

Friday evening's games, none of which were in the league, were cancelled by the rain. The Mecca restaurant was to play South Hamilton here and the Circleville were to go to Stoutsville.

JULY FOURTH TO BE BIG DAY FOR BIRDS

COLUMBUS, June 30.—The Fourth of July celebration announced for the Red Bird Stadium by President George M. Trautman some time ago is rapidly taking shape and promises to be one of the most attractive sports and amusement features offered in Columbus on Independence Day in many years.

The evening's program for the "Fourth" is scheduled to get under way at 5 o'clock with a twilight baseball game between the Columbus Red Birds and Toledo. The second game is to be played under the floodlights at 8:30. Between the two games, troops from Fort Hayes are to stage a military demonstration that will include a sham battle, a prize drill between picked men and demonstrations of many intricate military maneuvers. Following the night game will be a one hour display of fireworks. Tickets are to remain the same price for this game as for all other night games, President Trautman has announced.

Since this celebration promises to be the outstanding one in Columbus and Central Ohio, a committee of over two-score prominent local men has been appointed to link the various civic agencies that will participate in the July Fourth festivities.

Judge Benson W. Hough is chairman of this committee and he has nominated the following men to serve: Governor George White, Mayor Henry W. Morill, Floyd Stahl, H. S. Atkinson, H. R. Townsend, O. C. Altmaier, F. E. Rathbun, Robert F. Boda, Ray

About This And That

BY THE
SECOND GUESSER

TWO IMPORTANT TIPS
THE RECREATION BALL LEAGUE race may be decided next week with two games which will have a direct bearing on the outcome booked — the Mecca-Circleville Oil tilt should be a honey and so should the game between the Container Corporation — Eshelman Feds.

The former tilt is Tuesday and the latter Thursday.

The Mecca lineup is difficult to guess. Cum Robinson is that way making his players wander who will be in there. He will have Gordon behind the bat, Vlerbome in the box, Kline on first base, Merle Davis on second, Hickey and Short and Jaggy Davis on third with Wilson in left. For the other two outfield positions he has Earl Keadiff, Mettler, Bunk Reiffert and Hiegle, if Vlerbome should take the mound.

RAY SMITH ON FIRST

The Oils will have Robinson catching, Purcell pitching, Raymond Smith on first base in place of Geb who will be away. Merri-man, second, Steele short, Art Walker third, Joe Barnes left, Howard White center and Leroy Moore and Don White for right.

THE STRAWBOARD LINEUP

is expected to remain intact with Strawser behind the bat, R. Brungs pitching, Trimmer first, Whaley second, Stevens short, G. Brungs third, Brannon left, Watson center and W. Brungs right, while the Eshelman team will use P. Valentine catching, Callahan pitching, Fausnaugh first, Tomlinson second, Dewey short, Canter third, J. Valentine left, Heeter center and Ruhl or Dunkel right.

MECCA-C. OF A. WON

Games in the first half between these teams were fast ones, with the Mecca and Container Corporation the ultimate winners.

Other games of the week are Purina Chows and McClaren meets on Monday, and Circle City Oil and Given Oils on Wednesday.

CROWD SEES FISH WAGING LOSING FIGHT

Freshet Causes All Pollution
To Be Turned Loose At Once; Fishermen Ired.

CHILLICOTHE, June 30.—All the efforts of the conservation division of the state to re-stock streams for fishing shrank to puny proportions again Friday in the minds of local sportsmen, who developed a sinking feeling in the pits of their stomachs as they watched hundreds of dead fish, great and small, floating down the bosom of the Scioto river, and other hundreds making one brave battle for life in the stagnant clear water along the extreme edge of the river.

Although sportsmen organizations have long advocated that stream pollution be stopped, the Scioto river, as a catch basin for sewage and industrial wastes has long been nothing more than an open sewer. However in low water seasons, the pollution wastes settle and collect on riffles and in deep pools, there to remain until a freshet stirs all of it up at once.

Recent heavy rains along the stream course were sufficient to cause such a freshet and today river observers saw crawfish crawl out of the water and stay on the bank. The fish, not being equipped for such locomotion, had to stay in the poisoned stream and battle against certain death.

Main street and Bridge street bridges were lined with people today, drawn there to witness the catastrophe which was overtaking the fish life.

Because some fishermen were taking advantage of the situation and scooping up sick fish out of the shallows a warning was sounded today by local authorities advising people not to buy fish caught under such circumstance.

CLARK UNDER $7,500 BOND

Man Who Planned Ashville
Robbers, Signs Confession, Sheriff Reports.

The third member of the 'gang' which had all Ashville up in arms for a while as the result of a series of robberies was bound over to the grand jury, Friday afternoon, under heavy bond by Mayor W. B. Cady. He is Glenn 'Spiky' Clark, former resident of Ashville, who is alleged to have been the ring-leader of the outlaw gang.

Clark planned several robberies in the village his cohorts claim. The man, a former convict, was brought from the Franklin-co jail by Sheriff Charles Radcliff and after the hearing was immediately returned there. He is being held on investigation in another crime.

BOND SET $7,500
Clark pleaded not guilty to armed robbery of Frank Morrison, Ashville store-keeper, and was held for the grand jury under $3,500 bond. He also denied guilt in robbery of the Stanley Beckett shop and the Morris hardware store. Bond in each of these cases was set at $2,000 by the mayor. Clark is unable to furnish the required bond.

Strange as it may seem immediately after entering pleas of not guilty he signed a sworn confession telling his part in each of the robberies.

Jess Friley and Carroll Loudon are held in the local jail for the grand jury as part of the gang. Both are unable to furnish bond for their release.

Sheriff Radcliff said Saturday that he believed a special grand jury would be called probably on July 9 to dispose of a number of criminal cases now pending.

CINCINNATI, June 30.—The grand jury probe into an alleged alliance between police and a lower strata of the underworld had been marked today by the indictment of three police officers. The grand jury named were Carroll Coffield, 32, Henry J. Wyatt, 29, and Claude Itskin, 34. All were charged with accepting small bribes from keepers of an illicit resort.

One police officer already has been sentenced to the penitentiary as the result of the expose, which started when Mabel Smith, underworld character, claimed that she paid $9,000 to a score of police officers during the last year for "protection."

neighborhood of the American embassy. What happened immediately thereafter cannot be definitely determined because of confused reports from all sources.

Regular army detachments of the Reichwehr suddenly appeared at headquarters of the Nazi storm troopers. Gen. Hermann Wilhelm Goerring, prime minister of Prussia, and "fight hand man" of Chancellor Hitler, is said to have accompanied them.

HAD LEFT BERLIN

Within a few minutes regular army troops occupied headquarters of Capt. Roehm. Roehm had left Berlin a few days ago ostensibly on a vacation and because of ill-health. He had been looked upon as a leader of the fight against Von Papen, who was regarded not only as the head of the conservative element in the cabinet but as the spokesman for the Catholic church in its dispute with the government.

LANGER IN PRISON

FARGO, N. D., June 30.—With the sentencing of Gov. William Langer to 18 months in prison and a fine of $10,000 on charges of conspiracy to defraud the federal government, Lieut. Gov. Ole Olson today said he would renew his fight to unseat the governor.

Upon the conviction of Gov. Langer, Olson took the oath of office, but the attorney general ruled that the governor's chair was not vacant.

Federal Judge Andrew Miller passed sentence on Gov. Langer and four others convicted with him. The four, Oscar Chaput, business manager of the administration weekly, The Leader; R. D. Kinzer, Sr., Frank Vogel, state highway commissioner, and Harold McDonald, were given lighter sentences.

All five are at liberty on bond. Gov. Langer was victorious in the Wednesday primary, winning the governorship nomination on the Republican ticket against two opponents.

BELT PROVIDES CLUE TO MURDER

CHICAGO, June 30.—When a stranger called at her home and offered to sell Mrs. Leslie Hickey a man's belt for 10 cents she recognized it as one worn by her son Leonard before he was mysteriously beaten to death two weeks ago.

She summoned police and the would-be salesman, Albert Downs, 36, was arrested. Under questioning he named Ray G. Murphy, 34, as the one from whom he got the belt. Murphy, when arrested, was wearing the slain man's socks and hat, police said.

Here are two views of the damage resulting from the tornado and lightning storm which ripped through northern Ohio districts, blowing down trees and shattering buildings—top, a dance hall at Turkeyfoot lake, near Canton, O.; below, the Y. ## MARIE DRESSLER CONTINUES FIGHT

Eyes of World Watch California Home; Vitality Alone Keeps Star Alive.

SANTA BARBARA, Cal., June 30.—The eyes of the world today were focused on a cottage set amidst the pines and palms on the brow of a hill overlooking the blue, sparkling waters of the Pacific.

In that cottage, in reality a spacious mansion, Marie Dressler, the "graceful trouper" of them all, continued to stave off the death which her physicians and friends have said is inevitable.

Miss Dressler's amazing vitality alone is keeping her alive, according to her physicians. She rallied again early today after having been in a state of coma for nearly three days.

Trained nurses, a staff of physicians, and sorrowing friends gave the woman who has made thousands roar with laughter in one breath and burst into tears in the next, the kind of attention which is seldom showered upon any individual.

The sickroom and the cottage where the desperate battle—more desperate than any of the desperate situations which have confronted her in her life of make-believe on the stage and screen—are literally thousands of flowers. Flowers from the gardens of the wealthy in this millionaire's playground of Santa Barbara; flowers from the great, the near great, and those whose names never make the lights of Hollywood, banked every nook and corner of this estate of C. K. G. Billings, known as Billings park.

MARRIAGE LICENSES IN JUNE SET MARK

A record number of marriage licenses were issued during June, it was reported in probate court Saturday.

A total of 32 permits to wed had been issued at noon today, assuring a record of better than a license per day during the month of brides. Last year only 23 licenses were issued during the month.

Friday afternoon, the 32nd couple appeared, brought the minister along with them and were married in the vault of the probate court office.

An interesting feature of this month's record is the number of times the name of Davis appears in the licenses.

Three Davises were involved in two licenses granted Friday. They were Paul F. Davis and Barbara Louise Davis and Gilbert C. Morrison and Frances Davis.

60 AT G. O. P. MEET

Approximately 60 persons attended the dinner meeting sponsored by the Republican club at the American House Coffee Shop Friday evening.

Paul Herbert, Republican candidate for the nomination of lieutenant governor, the principal speaker, attacked the NRA and other of President Roosevelt's policies on the grounds that they were not helping conditions.

Milton J. Scott, of Chillicothe, candidate for the Republican nomination of secretary of state, was also present and gave a short talk.

VET SHOTS WOMAN, TURNS GUN ON SELF
LONDON, O., June 30.—Mrs. Ora Berg, 33, today was shot and killed by Arch Kemp, 36-year-old Hammond, Indiana war veteran, who then turned the gun on himself and committed suicide, according to police.

QUESTION BRINGS (Continued From Page One)

were last year. The administration's program is such a new departure from the old order of things that we are uncertain about the future.

George Tidmore, a laborer: No, I'm no better off than I was last year. Temporary relief afforded by CWA helped last winter, but now I'm out of a job again. I believe the President is trying to do the right thing, but the people won't follow him.

Judge J. W. Adkins: Yes, I believe things are better. Earned prices are up and trade is better.

Adair Bentford, colored, who was ordered out of town by the mayor Saturday: "I'm better off now than I was last year. I didn't have a job then and I've been able to get steady employment since the President took office."

E. A. Brown, attorney: "Generally speaking, I think the entire country is much better off now than it was last year. The farmer is getting a better price for his products and employment has gained considerably."

Frank Thomas, laborer: "I'm not better off because I'm crippled and can't get a job, but I believe the President's program has helped considerably. Let it be said, however, that he has helped many persons who spend their money as quick as they make it and really are not entitled to help."

Mayor W. B. Cady: "I believe things are considerably better than last year."

Officer Tom McManamy: "I'm not better off because I've had my salary cut in half, but I believe the country as a whole is in better shape. Prices are up, the financial status of the country is more secure and we're more confident in the future."

Will Another Name Be Added to Great Minds of

Benjamin Franklin Alexander Hamilton John Marshall James Madison Independence Hall President Roosevelt The Capitol Daniel Webster Abraham Lincoln

The above layout shows eight men who stand out in history as the great minds in the creation and evolution of the Constitution of the United States—Washington, Franklin, Hamilton, Jefferson and Madison who made valuable contributions to the document, and Lincoln, Marshall and Webster, who made important interpretations of it. As the memory of these men are honored on Independence Day, observers wonder if a ninth name—Franklin D. Roosevelt—may be added to the immortal list as a result of his interpretations of the constitution in his recovery measures through the inauguration of the New Deal.

ENDERLIN IS NAMED IN BUILDERS' CODE

R. P. Enderlin has received the following communication from John B. Rose, chairman of the code authority for the builder's supply industry:

In recognition of your loyal support of the program of President Roosevelt, and your adherence to the provisions of the Code of Fair Competition for the Builders Supply Industry and further in
